

Supplementary Figure: Body weight changes during the study. Each data point represents mean  $\pm$  SD obtained from each group of animals (n=6). Data points with filled circle represent control, triangle represents test compound, Gremin and filled squares represents Reference compound.